

LOW INCOME AMONG PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES IN CANADA

In 2014, the persons with disabilities accounted for 1/5 of the population between the range of 25 to 64.

Low Income

Among individuals aged 25 to 64, 9% are classified as low income. This rate increases by 2.6 to 24% for those with disabilities.

Disability Severity & Income

The 82% of mental-cognitive disabilities are mild, , but 84% are more severe for combined disabilities.

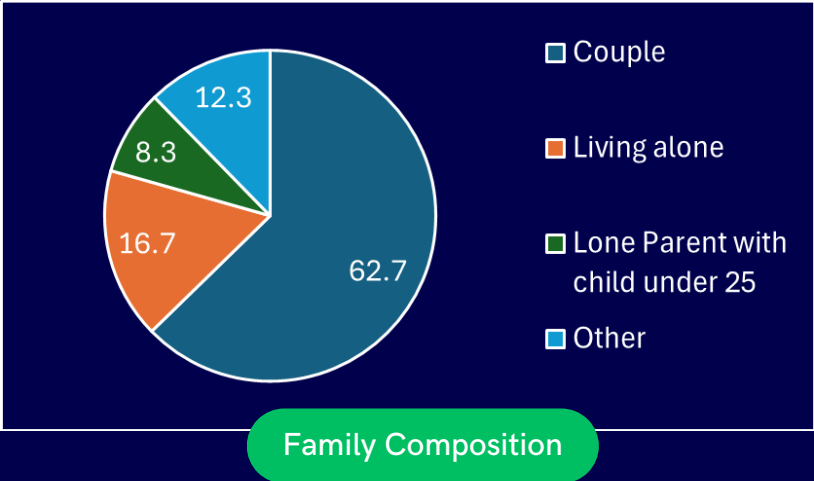

Combine disabilities also have a higher percentage to be in low income salaries than the other disabilities.

Household

Couples of a Household represent both parents having disabilities or only one of them.

Low-income rates was over 50% for lone parents and persons living alone for persons on the 25-64 range of Age.

Probabilities of being in low income by Household

For: 25 to 44 years

For people between 25 to 44, lone parenting has the highest probability of low income with 61%

45 to 64 years

For people between 45 to 64, living alone has the highest probability of low income with 52%

Not Employed population

Persons with combined disabilities face almost double the percentaje to be in low income, compared to those with not disabilities